RELIGION IN BUSINESS

Lecturer Says Missouri Bible College Has Won Favor.

At the assembly of the Missouri Bible College this morning the Rev. G. D. Edwards, who is now the financial agent of the college but will become a professor next year, spoke on "Religion Among Business Men." He said the business men of this State are much in favor of having a Bible College at the seat of a large university where the coming men and women of the State will find not only courses in science and literature but also in religion, which is of vital importance to them.

The announcement was made that the endowment of the Bible College will be greatly increased within a short time. Students have taken a hand to support the college financially. About $625 was raised by the students through their own effort last year.

Bible College Announcement.

Prof. C. M. Sharpe of the Bible College of Missouri has issued an outline of the courses to be given next semester and wishes those who intend to take work there to confer with him as soon as possible so that books may be obtained at once. There are now 150 University of Missouri students enrolled in the Bible College and most of them are working for credit toward their degrees.

URGES HIGH IDEAL IN DAIRY INDUSTRY

Dr. Luckey Warns Dairymen Against Encroachment of Oleo Makers.

for a substitute for milk for food for their babies. Thousands of people have discontinued drinking milk. It was only by the most strenuous effort that laws were secured to regulate the sale of oleomargarine. These laws are none too secure at the present time. If the packers had the foresight to disinfest the butter and cream they use in making oleomargarine, it would be likely to become a more popular product than butter. By doing so they can greatly enlarge the oleomargarine market and can come near repealing all oleo laws. "Dairymen know what this will mean. As much as it must be regretted this course is likely to be followed to the great detriment of the dairy industry. If it is, the dairymen will have no one but themselves to blame."
